

EASTER 2020 – “I AM LIVING, NOT I, BUT YOU ARE LIVING IN ME”

6. “Change is an openness”

After the video assembly on 21 May with Julián Carrón and Francesco Barberis, each of us, at whatever point we find ourselves, have been set in motion so that the steps we’ve made in this time can become for each of us the occasion for a personal discovery. We therefore invite everyone to respond to the agenda of the assembly, in parallel with all that has come out of this time:

During this period full of new and constricting circumstances—distance learning, living together in close quarters with our families, the physical distance of our friends, the challenges of everyday life—what has surprised you about yourself? What discoveries have you made, what questions have come out for you?

Remember that it is possible to send questions and witnesses to the website:
